

THE AXE IN THE ATTIC

a film by Ed Pincus
and Lucia Small

We learned from Hurricane Betsy in 1965 to keep an axe in the attic so you don't get trapped by rising water.
- Hurricane Katrina Survivor

"This is a shattering documentary."

-Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun-Times

"One of the most challenging and unsettling American films of the year."

-Livia Bloom, Cinema Scope Magazine

"The film is about rediscovering our common humanity - pushing through the flat screen of TV footage to connect with the Katrina victims as individuals."

-Ty Burr, The Boston Globe
